

MOUNT KELLY

Boarding and Day School
Boys and Girls, Aged 4-18

Who is here to listen?

Boarding legislation makes it clear that pupils living away from home should be provided with the contact details of people and organisations outside of Mount Kelly.

Boarders should be aware that the following people and organisations are available to them.

The Children's Commissioner promotes and protects the rights of children, especially the most vulnerable, and stands up for their views and interests.

The Children's Commissioner for England is Dame Rachel de Souza.

If you want to contact the Children's Commissioner you can send an email to help.team@childrenscommissioner.gov.uk

Or phone 0800 528 0731

childline

ONLINE, ON THE PHONE, ANYTIME

Get help and advice on a wide range of issues.

Childline is a free, private and confidential service where you can talk about anything. They are available online and on the phone anytime on 08001111

Contact Childline at www.childline.org.uk

Rachel Debenham is our Independent Listener. She is not a counsellor, but she has worked in independent boarding schools for over 15 years and she is available to you if you wish to speak to someone not employed by the school about an issue that may be troubling you.

Her role is that of a supportive adult and active listener who may, in appropriate circumstances, suggest to you the next steps you may wish to consider.

Phone 07909 927066

If she has concerns about your welfare and you provide your name she will need to pass this on to Mrs Tabb, Senior Deputy Head.

ISI

Independent
Schools
Inspectorate

The Independent School's Inspectorate

The ISI's priority, and the focus of inspections, is the pupils. Our job is to ensure each school is doing what it should to educate you and care for your welfare. If you have a concern about your school and do not feel able to discuss this with your parents or an adult you trust at the school, or if you want ISI to know about your concern, you can email info@isi.net or phone 0207 600 0100